CONDUCT

Huronia Museum wants to create a fun and safe environment for all our campers, and we stress an atmosphere of respect; for each other and our space. Each morning we discuss our rules for safety and expected conduct with our campers. If we have campers who are struggling to follow the rules we will discuss it with parents at pick up time. If behaviour problems continue we may have to discuss other options.

Huronia Museum asks that all campers come ready to participate in a full day of activity. This means having weather appropriate clothing and wearing clothes that are intended for play. Some of the games and crafts we do can get messy, so make sure no one is wearing their "good clothes" to camp.

We also want our campers to be ready to join in and have fun! Each day there is some free time for campers to enjoy any activity they choose, but when we are ready to start our group activities we want to make sure that campers are ready too. During group activities, counsellors are focused on leading and assisting in the activity so we need to have all campers joining in, not only so they have fun, but also to make sure that everyone is properly supervised.

In order to start off on the right foot we ask that parents/guardians discuss the following camp guidelines with their campers.

Respect others and their property

Hands off

No bullying behavior

Listen to the Leaders

Stay with the group

Participation

HAVE FUN!
